

Oh ah

Oh ah

A lot of men probably wish they coulda had you
But I put trust in everything you said, thinking I wouldn't have to Cause I was yo man, so I put you first
I never thought after Mary, I could be put through worse

I saw the fright in your eyes
When I started leaving
You would try to deny
You were so deceiving
But now I realize
I realize

Love ain't real, Love ain't real

You shoulda listened to me baby
I hope you know it's all your fault
You coulda been here with me baby
But you got to comfortable
Look at what we once were
I don't care what we once were, yeahh-ehh-ayy
Now I'm a fuckin monster
I'm a fuckin monster
Yeahh-ehh-ayy

Now look at you runnin round fuckin everyone in the city
I thought I told you once before that you won't ever forget me

I saw the fright in your eyes
When I started leaving
You would try to deny
You were so deceiving
But now I realize
I realize

Love ain't real
Love ain't real
Love ain't real
Love ain't real
