

Jericho

Johnny Rain

I miss you, you miss me more
You've never felt this before
It's confusing (ha)
Cause now you have
Everything to lose in (ha)
Don't be scared
Don't be scared baby

These are your walls coming down
These are your walls coming down
These are your walls coming down
These are your walls coming down

I'm not your enemy, girl
So what you scared of me for?
Open up
Open up baby

These are your walls coming down
These are your walls coming down
These are your walls coming down
These are your walls coming down

Don't be scared, when we finish this
I want you home, in my bed
Like you can resist, cut that shit
I'll make you beg
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

These are your walls coming down
These are your walls coming down
These are your walls coming down
These are your walls coming down

Johnny, please call me back. I wanna talk to you. Let me hear y our voice. Come back to me daddy. I love you

It's hard to see something new
Make all your dream come true
I know
If walls between us lose
Then I'll believe in you
I believe in you
