

If we die young, tryna find, Hollywood, Hollywood
Through my son, I'm alive, I'll be good
Oh I'll be fine

I know it's hard
But anything worth having is hard, huh?
You're gonna have a baby in just a few minutes okay?

Okay one more
1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10
[?] up, okay

Dad did you wanna cut the chord?

You did so good
[?] yet?
[JR:] You did good baby

[Nurse:] Happy birthday!

You sheltered me, in my dark times
You were there
How lost I'd be? I thought you left me alone

Glory to the Heaven, I know you care
Glory, I'll never let you go
Nah (I know better)

You looked up at me
And in those little eyes I saw God
You look just like me, I'll never leave you alone

I sing glory, 'cause he gave your love to me
Glory, the son is born, yeah
