

Stellar

Johnny Rain

And you're like
A warm plate at midnight
And you're like
The ocean, sometimes you cover me
Sometimes impossible

You're so fucking stellar
An angel in my eyes
You're so fucking complicated
You make me wanna die
You're so fucking stellar
Oh just change your mind
Because I don't want to feel this
So I won't, I won't
Oh I don't want to love you
So I won't, So I won't
I'm comfortably numb

And you're like
A warm plate at 2am
And you're light
You tip me out and cut me up
On the table

You're so fucking stellar
An angel in my eyes
You're so fucking complicated
You make me wanna die
You're so fucking stellar
Oh open your eyes
Because I don't want to feel this
So I won't
I won't
Oh I don't want to love you
So I won't
So I won't
I'm comfortably numb
Uncomfortably numb
I'm comfortably numb

You're so fucking stellar
An angel in my eyes
You're so fucking complicated
You make me wanna cry
You're so fucking stellar
Oh just change your mind
Because I don't want to feel this
So I won't
I won't
Oh I don't want to love
So I won't
So I won't
I'm comfortably numb
I'm comfortably numb
Uncomfortably numb
I'm comfortably numb
