

THE BAD PART

Johnny Rain

(Yeah, yeah)

Just because I don't wanna speak right now
Doesn't mean that I'm used to you
Even though you ain't what I need right now
No, I'm not used to you
Girl, I know we didn't go so far, didn't do me like this Girl, I know I didn't throw another heartbreak on my ex
Either way, I think we should hold off on my answer

Either way, I need for the K hidden on my wrist
You're not safe for me, I can't play when I'm on my mission
I start wishin'
I might miss you
Reason forever, postcard I bought like Richard
Please say it is, when you've got all my attention
Why if I said what I mean, what I want different
Don't say enemies, oh please, just cloud my vision

(Aah, aah)
Things have been different
You ain't consistent
Keep me around, water your crown
You know decision bout' round and round
And no worry with your diamonds and your money
I could give a fuck about all that shit
Don't play me like you don't know me (boy)
After all that we've been through
After all that we did
All of the caring I did (huh)
We'll see where you'll be when you miss me

I keep a forty on me every day
I keep a forty on me every day
If I keep doin' this shit that I chase
Praying some more, could heal from the pain
Proud of my soul to take it away (Take it away)
Seeing this life without live for the day
Dreaming of life I got live for the day
Sun in my eye but I sit in the shade
(Sun in my eye but I sit in the shade)
Feel like I'm driving my momma insane
Changing the flow is apart of my ways
How do I sole a new garden of snakes
(Part it away, part it away)
Pocket at the door and I'm guarding the tape
Letting me go to the family of straight
Not get a break

Take a moment
And with every breath say
"I did not deserve that"
You, did not deserve that
We, did not deserve that
Make no excuses
A relationship with a snake is not transcendent
I'll bite, regardless of how deep

Isn't that symbolic for passion?
Loneliness is not a fatal fear
You will find your pulse again
