

A Moon To Remember

Johnny Reid

Wrapped up beneath
a blanket of stars
you and me
and the beat of our hearts both holding on holding on tight
I can still see
reflecting in your eyes

a night to surrender
a moment to treasure
forever yours and mine
a flood of emotion
cast over the ocean
a moon to remember
for the rest of our lives - yeah

looking at you
nothing has changed
what I felt back then, baby I still feel today
you're all I want
you're all I'll ever need I never will forget the night you shared with me
