

Getting Ready For Tomorrow

Johnny Rivers

Tomorrow won't be like any other day
Today I gave my heart away
Tomorrow the sun will shine again for me
And once more will my life be filled with gaiety

And the song that I sing to her
Will be a melody
Let will bring joy to her
That parries in the spring

I'm gettin' ready
I'm gettin' ready for tomorrow

I'll only say the thing she wanna hear
Yes, I'll be content with just having her near

So began yesterday's sorrow
And I'll beg you proclaim
And may gloom for tomorrow's
Give the happiness it brings

I'm gettin' ready
I'm gettin' ready for tomorrow
For tomorrow
For tomorrow
For tomorrow
For tomorrow

Yeah, for tomorrow
For tomorrow
I'm gettin' ready for tomorrow
