

New Lovers And Old Friends

Johnny Rivers

Some people move on, some must remain
Some people waitin' for a plane or train
I need you right now more than I can say
But when the morning comes I might be on my way

Lookin' for new lovers and old friends
Just tryin' to pick up all the loose ends
Lookin' for new lovers and old friends
Maybe someday we'll be together again

I'm a-seekin' a greater stand
Never been part of someone else's plan
Right now you want me, you want me to stay
Maybe tomorrow, girl you won't feel that way

Talkin' bout new lovers and old friends
Just tryin' to pick up all the loose ends
Talkin' bout new lovers and old friends
Maybe someday we'll be together again

I'd have someone forever
But we've tried too many tries
Lately the songs I have been singing
Have all been filled with goodbyes

Talking bout new lovers and old friends
Just keep on pushing till my journey ends
Talkin' bout new lovers and old friends
Maybe someday we'll be together again

New lovers and old friends
Just keep on pushing till the journey ends
Lookin' for new lovers and old friends
I know someday we'll be together again
