

Disappointed In You

Johnny Thunders

I feel so lucky to be alive.
I had so many friends who lost Their lives.
It's getting so hard to understand why.
Well we all get our chance to beat the odds but who beats the odds?

I feel hurt
I feel sad
I feel lonely
I feel mad
I feel disappointed in you

Well some had something to say
Well I guess it was in their own confusing way
Maybe we didn't hear when they were crying out
When they were crying out asking for a helping hand

I feel hurt
I feel sad
I feel lonely
I feel mad
I feel disappointed in you

Well the point is now that there gone
Well you all have something nice to say
I feel so hurt deep inside
Well the only way you get respect is when you die
If your a friend of mine

I feel hurt
I feel sad
I feel lonely
I feel mad
I feel disappointed in you

There were times I thought I was dead
There were times I burned the candle at both ends
There were times I even regret
But I beat the odds
Who beats the odds?

I feel hurt
I feel sad
I feel lonely
I feel mad
I feel disappointed in you
Disappointed in you
I feel hurt
I feel sad
I feel hurt
I feel sad
I feel hurt
