

She's So Untouchable

Johnny Thunders

Can't close my eyes
When she's around
My heart stops and goes again
I'm lost and then I'm found

It's getting so hot in here
I gotta let you know
Because you make me crazy
If I only let you die now

She's so untouchable
She makes me uncontrollable

If only she'd know how
How I really felt
Maybe things would work out
Maybe I would find out

But maybe my head's in the clouds
And I don't even know
Because she is so pretty
She knocks the boys out because now

She's so untouchable
But I touch her
She's so untouchable

But what can I say
It's getting a long day
Some girls may walk on by
But I don't think I'll look anyway

Some boys may beg like a dog
Some girls beg, beg, beg, too
But what can I say but
Bon voyage, baby, because now
