

Cheap Tequila

Johnny Winter

Cheap perfume, sweet perfume
The lonely smell that fills the room
Roses in your low-rent tomb
A picture made of cheap perfume

Sad old rag, sad young hag
Clothes that hide the early sag
Sequins on a lame bag
The sparkles of a sad old rag

Drink up and be happy
Live just for today
Drown in cheap tequila
And flush yourself away

Worn out dreams, washed up scheme
Blueprint for a death machine
Scarred wrists on a movie queen
A picture of a worn out dream

Drink up and be happy
Live just for today
Drown in cheap tequila
And flush yourself away

[Instrumental]

Drink up and be happy
Live just for today
Drown in cheap tequila
And flush yourself away
(2x)

Flush yourself away
Yeah, flush yourself away
