

Prodigal Son

Johnny Winter

Shine on, prodigal son.
Gotta have your morning glory
Keep on having your fun
It'll be the same old story soon.
Soon it will be afternoon
Sun getting hot as a fine
Never mind.

Keep on watching the sky
Keep on waiting to die
Keep on wondering why
Afternoon
Afternoon

Burn on, celestial star
Burn away the times that find you
Move on wherever you are [?] do the thing that one will find you here
You won't have nothing to fear but time slipping away
day by day

Keep on watching the sky
Keep on waiting to die
Keep on wondering why
Afternoon
Afternoon

Shine bright prodigal son
Rushed off to your happy ending
Good night, celestial one
No use wasting time pretending now
Now that you [?]
Hating the time and the space?
Lose that race

Keep on watching the sky
Keep on waiting to die
Keep on wondering why
Afternoon
Afternoon
