

Diamonds

JOHNNYSWIM

In the wake of every heartache
In the depth of every fear
There were diamonds, diamonds
Waiting to break out of here.

Don't you think I hear the whispers
Those subtle lies, those angry pleas
There just demons, demons
Wishing they were free like me.

We're the fire, from the sun
We're the light when the day is done
We are the brave, the chosen ones
We're the diamonds, diamonds
Rising up out the dust.

Oh oh... rising up out the dust
Oh oh... rising up out the dust
Oh oh... rising up out the dust
Oh oh... rising up out the dust

All your curses will surrender
Every damning word will kneel
They're just mountains, mountains
About to turn into fields.

We're the fire, from the sun
We're the light when the day is done
We are the brave, we're the chosen ones
We're the diamonds, diamonds
Rising up out the dust.

Oh oh... rising up out the dust
Oh oh... rising out the dust
Oh oh... rising out the dust
Oh oh... rising, rising, rising, rising...

You've taken down
So many others
Oh but you'll know my name when you see
And in these ashes I'm stronger still
You'll learn to fear my pain, yeah you will.

You've taken down
So many others
Oh but you'll know my name when you see
And in these ashes I'm stronger still
You'll learn to fear my pain, yeah you will.
You'll learn to fear my pain, yeah you will, yeah you will, yeah you will.

We're the fire, from the sun
We're the light when the day is done
We are the brave, we are the chosen ones
We're the diamonds, diamonds
We're the diamonds, diamonds
We're the diamonds, diamonds
We're the diamonds, diamonds

Rising up out the dust.

Oh oh... rising out the dust
Oh oh... rising out the dust
Oh oh... rising out the dust
Oh oh...

Oh oh... rising up out the dust
Oh oh... rising up out the dust
Oh oh... rising, rising, rising
Oh oh...
