

Long Gone

JOHNNYSWIM

The road is worn, the tale's been told
All we know
Fall apart to fall in love
So it goes, it's true
I'd turn to dust beside you if there's room
If love's a tragic story call it me and you

When odds are stacked high brick on brick
I know
We roll the dice to shoot the moon
Just call me a fool
It ain't a gamble, darling, if it's true
If love's a game I place my bets on me and you

Oh, when we go
It ain't over
Our love will stay when we're long gone

Raise the anchor, fly the sail
Off we go
Weather calm or violent swells
Abandon shore we do
The sun from the horizon's quite the view
If love's an ocean drowning deep are me and you

Oh, when we go
It ain't over
Our love will stay when we're long gone
And oh, when we go
It ain't over, love
Our love will stay when we're long gone

I'd turn to dust beside you if there's room
It ain't a gamble, darling, if it's true
The sun from the horizon's quite the view
When love is lost it finds its way to me and you
