

You say you don't believe me, nothing I say is true and my words turn out to hurt you, but there's something you've forgotten, when you feel like everything is breaking down

Oooh

And I sold it all for nothing, the treasure and the junk, and I'm headed towards something, mhm, to the sea that we've forgotten, and it feels like everything will be alright

And I see everything, everything, every memory your mind has forgotten,
and I still believe, there's a dream, alive

Ooaah x4

And I'm paving out my road now,
'cause everything will change, and I'm losing all control now, mhm, in the sea that we've forgotten, and I'm still inside here looking for a thrill

Ah!

And I see everything, everything,
every memory your mind has forgotten,
and I still believe, there's a dream, alive

Ooaah x4

Yeah!

Ooh, in the sea that we've forgotten, in the sea that we've forgotten

Ooaah x4

Oh, and there's something you've forgotten and you feel like everything is breaking down...
