

Echoes

Johnossi

I looked down in an open well
Then I fell into a black hole
I've been building a wall of shame
Walking on a tightrope

If our love is a villain now
Then somebody better let go
If our love is a losing game
The player is an asshole

I'll go there, go there don't follow me
Guided by my ego
I got my reasons, it shadows my family
But baby can't you see though
That I don't wanna live my life through echoes
Who could ever set me free

People say you should leave him now
If you care about tomorrow
But they don't know what it's all about
Kill the time we've borrowed

I'll go there, go there don't follow me
Guided by my ego
I got my reasons, it shadows my family
But baby can't you see though
That I don't wanna live my life through echoes
Who could ever set me free

I'll go there, go there don't follow me
Guided by my ego
I got my reasons, it shadows my family
But baby can't you see though
That I don't wanna live my life through echoes
Live my life through echoes
Live my life through echoes
Who could ever set me free
