

Great Escape

Johnossi

Its been a long time
Honey
Since I left this early dawn

No destination, im just wandering
Through the city where we were born

And in this great escape
I go through my mistakes
but
before tomorrow set and sun
I'll fall back

In the nighttime I'm thinking
There ought to be something more than this

But what we get from drinking is the realiy that we miss

And in this great escape
I go through my mistakes
but
before tomorrow set and sun
I'll fall back
Into you
I'll fall back.
