Seventeen

Johnossi

Oh, the winter's is so dark and pale
Yet the winter's is so pure
I came around for the holiday
When you said that you needed me more
I remember the time we spent
Hanging around in my apartment in town
How you lived for another day
No regrets, kept your feed on the ground
Seventeen
Back around
When you go, you will find
Every dream, torn apart
There'll be no shooting star
You're gonna live in the dark
You're gonna live in the dark
It ain't easy to look beyond
When you hide in the shade
Fall asleep at the break of dawn
With a wish to never wake up again
Seventeen
Back around
When you go, you will find
Every dream, torn apart
There'll be no shooting star
You're gonna live in the dark
Seventeen
Back around
When you go, you will find
Every dream, torn apart
There'll be no shooting star
You're gonna live in the dark
From now on
Forever, you'll be gone
Every dream, torn apart
There'll be no shooting star
You're gonna live in the dark
You're gonna live in the dark
You're gonna live in the dark
