

War / Rain

Johnossi

I wanted the war to come here
I want a war to clean this town
I wanted a war to come here
I want a war to sweep it out
And I want it to rain down hard now
I want it to rain down on this town
I want it to rain down hard now
I wanted a war to sweep it out
And I wanted to see it in your eyes, dear
I wanted to see it in your eyes
All the fear you're holding

That I feel nothing at all
Now we've come this far

Maybe I've lost myself to voices
Maybe there's something with my dreams
Live in the vacuum inbetween us
Take me away from where I've been
I am the postman in the desert
Running an errand with regrets
I am the darkness in your ocean
I am the love you'll never get

I feel nothing at all
Now we've come this far
I feel nothing at all
Give me all the things I ever wanted
Give me everything or nothing at all
'Cause I feel nothing at all

Maybe I've lost myself to voices
Maybe there's something with my dreams
Live in the vacuum inbetween us
Take me away from where I've been
I am the postman in the desert
Running an errand with regrets
I am the darkness in your ocean
I am the love you'll never get

I feel nothing at all
Now we've come this far
I feel nothing at all
Give me all the things I ever wanted
Give me everything or nothing at all
'Cause I feel nothing at all

I gave you my all
I gave you my all
I gave you my all
I gave you my all
I gave you my all
You know I gave you my all
I gave you my all
I gave you my all
