

Air

Joi Cardwell

I feel light
As in flight
And I know in my
Mind that it's true
That for you I'd do anything

I feel free as the breeze
Like the shade of the trees
Just a touch
Of your love
Means so much to me

Ooh it's the air I breathe
And you are everything I need
Yes it's true it's the air I breathe
And you are everything I need

I feel hope
So much joy
Like a child with a toy
Such a life that extends
Well Beyond my dreams

I feel good
So renewed so alive in the light
Without you in my life where would I be

Ooh it's the air I breathe
And you are everything I need
Yes it's true it's the air I breathe
And you are everything I need

It's the air I breathe
It's the air I breathe
And you are everything that I need
It's the air I breathe

It's the air I breathe
It's the air I breathe
And you are everything that I need
It's the air I breathe
