Joji

Yah, yah, yah, yah, yah, oh it's a vibe
Yah, yah, yah, yah, yah, vibe

When I jump into the temple
Prefer a local mental
Bending knees and wishing place inside to hide low, go
Took a beer I need a
□□beat□□□□ (This beat'll knock you down)
□□□□□□□□ (The power's beyond your limit)
□□□□□□ (Helping your awakening)
□□□□□□□□□□□ (I hear your word, every sentence)
□□□□□□ (Already expired)
□□□□□□ (All my toys)
□□□□□□ (Y'all praise me)
□□□□□□□□□□□ (That's why I occupied your territory)
Yeah, like I'm running the game (game)
Don't you fuck with my fame
Light it up, spark it up, burn it into flames
I'm the one and only motherfucker from the East
All them bitches lining up to feel me, spit it then I peace
Getting in my zone (gettin')
I do this shit alone (I do)
I'm the Yeezus of the East
You need to Watch the Throne (yeah)

All this ice be on me but I still be risin'
I'll be on your labels but I'm still ridin'
Say that I be falling but they see me flyin'
When you peep me, I'm at the top
Ayy, turn up, turn up
Oh now, the tides are turnin'
I ain't never, ever doubt what I've been affordin'
All this ice be on me but I still be risin'
Say that I be fallin' but they see me flyin'

Yeah, tell your chick I like her, take it on my Leica
And I'm always stacking paper, but my name ain't Michael
Got a crib in Indo, it's tall just like the Eiffel
I could get her number if I put it on my right, yuh
God damn legit, told me that she liked my fit
When I take her out to dinner, man, the check ain't gettin' split
Don't look like I'm getting thinner with the chickens and the ribs
Man, your bitch is what I say
One day, I saw her and got the kiss
Don't say my name, I never wanna breathe your air
Coke and Kool-Aid, there's just some shit you don't compare
I got a x-ray and I just saw my old girl there
She was my ex babe, but now I really just don't care
I'm so tired, but my mind is racin'
Fuck with me and see what kinda problems you'll be facin'
Friday 13th, I make you look like you're my Jason
Like a damn femur poppin', just what I've been cravin'

All this ice be on me but I still be risin'
I'll be on your levels but I'm still ridin'
Say that I be falling but they see me flyin'
When you peep me, I'm at the top

Ayy, turn up, turn up
Oh now, the tides are turnin'
I ain’t never, ever doubt what I’ve been affordin'
All this ice be on me but I still be risin'
Say that I be fallin' but they see me flyin'

They said that I won't make it
They said that I won't change
They say that I'm not flexin' (Pow-pow-pow)
Now they say wow, you've changed (skrrt)
Now they say why you change
Now they say why you changin'
Yeah, they ask why you've changed
When the rest ain't looking like me

(Fourteen and Seventeen)
No way, no way, stay the same
Got that purple in my vein
It ain't hard to feel their pain
While I'm rocking Saint Laurent
Purple body like a Saint
Ooh, big body would you like a tie
I'm just swerving, smoking on some dank
I'm just tryna fucking ease the pain
‘Fore I blow my mind like Kurt Cobain
No I won't change
No I won't change
No I won't change
Yeah, and I promise I won't change
And I promise I'm the same
Trippie Redd, you know my name
Bitch, they say that I'm insane
I might blow your fucking brain
Bitch, I'm fly just like a crane
Feels like I'm fallin' off a plane
Feels like I'm fallin' off a plane
And that bitch got angel wings
And just spitting all these flames
And it just 'nnihilate the lames
And it annihilate the lames

They said that I won't make it
They said that I won't change
They say that I'm not flexin' (Pow-pow-pow)
Now they say wow, you've changed (skrrt)
Now they say why you change
Now they say why you changin'
Yeah, they ask why you've changed
When the rest ain't looking like me

Ooh, call my name
Spit at your feet
'Cause I'm alone
Don't call my name
Need some sleep
And sing along
