

Feel Alright

Jojo

Two different angles, but it's the same though, high and low
Willing and able to walk away, but it's comfortable

So is it all in my head? It's not making sense, what is the truth?

And do I love you this much or is this just something to do?

Lords knows I really wanna believe you're gonna change my mind
I got a man that turns the other cheek just to feel alright
I wouldn't tell you to come back just to hold me
If I wasn't so scared of being lonely
I'm holding on to the edge of a knife just to feel alright

When I come to my senses about you
That's when I find myself again, by losing you
I remember how it all began
I was vulnerable and broken
That was how you got under my skin
And it's almost never been the same

So is it all in my head? It's not making sense, what is the truth?

And do I love you this much or is this just something to do?

Lords knows I really wanna believe you're gonna change my mind
I got a man that turns the other cheek just to feel alright
I wouldn't tell you to come back just to hold me
If I wasn't so scared of being lonely
I'm holding on to the edge of a knife just to feel alright

Just wanna feel I'm, yeah
Just wanna feel alright
Just wanna feel I'm, yeah
Just wanna feel
Just wanna feel, yeah
Just wanna feel alright
Just wanna feel, babe, yeah
Just wanna feel alright
