

Good Enough (Interlude)

Jojo

Mercury's always in retrograde
And everybody's movin' on, but I'm on the same page
There's no use speakin' in absolutes
But I'm scared that I'll never change
Lookin at myself is infuriatin'
I hate it 'cause I stop myself from even participatin'
Engagin' in the conversation's drainin'
It happens daily like I'm sideways

Is it? (Good enough)
Are you? (Good enough)
Can't be (Good enough)
The way that you move (Good enough)
You ain't (Good enough)
Stuck on (Good enough)
The things that you do (Good enough)
Perfection (Good enough)
Get it (Good enough)
So much to prove
So much to lose, yeah
Is it? (Good enough)
Are you? (Good enough)
Can't be (Good enough)
The way that you move (Good enough)
You ain't (Good enough)
Stuck on (Good enough)
The things that you do (Good enough)
Perfection (Good enough)
Get it (Good enough)
There's so much to prove

Is it?
Do you feel you're not good enough for me?
So much to prove

Things don't look the same in the thick of the night
Wait for the sun rise
It'll be alright
Don't go let the world make you lose sight
All that needs time
