

Painkiller

Jojo

I found you when I wasn't lookin'
Found you when I was blind
Found you when I needed you most
Found you when I was outta my mind
I found you when no light was shinin'
Found you when I'd given up
I found you when I was crying and crying
Found you in my broken cup

You're my painkiller, baby, when life comes down hard
I take you, I take you
You're my painkiller, baby, for my broken heart
I take you, I take you, oh...
You're my painkiller, baby
Painkiller

I need you for my bad decisions
Need you 'cause you make me smile
I need you when I'm tired of living
I need you for my inner child
Call you with my mixed emotion
Call you when my feelings hurt
Call you when the wound is open
And call you when I feel like dirt

You're my painkiller, baby, when life comes down hard
I take you, I take you
You're my painkiller, baby, for my broken heart
I take you, I take you, oh...

Sometimes the world is too round
Sometimes the drinks are too strong
Sometimes I wanna get outta this town
Sometimes feels like the night is too long
Sometimes I hear a sad song
Sometimes I feel so lost

Found you when I wasn't looking
Found you when I was blind

You're my painkiller, baby, when life comes down hard
I take you, I take you (Ooh, whoa, I take you)
You're my painkiller, baby, for my broken heart (You're my)
I take you (I take you), I take you (I take you), ooh
You're my painkiller, baby, when life comes down hard
I take you, I take you
You're my painkiller, baby, for my broken heart (You're my)
I take you, I take you, oh...

You're my painkiller, baby
