

The Change

Jojo

I'm not gonna blame, put the blame, on nobody
Oh it's gonna get me, it's get me nowhere
I just gotta look, gonna look in the mirror
And start there

I'm gonna be the change
I'm gonna start with my heart
I'm gonna be the light, be that light, my own light
That lights my way through the dark
I'm gonna see that day, changes gonna find me
But it's up to me, up to me, all on me
To make the change inside me
So I'm gonna be the change, change, change
I'm gonna be the change, change, change
I'm gonna be the change, change, change

I'm not gonna make, gonna make no excuses
I'm not gonna waste no more time being blind
'Cause there ain't no world, ain't now world that I am changing
If I don't change mine

I'm gonna stand a little taller
Hold my head a little higher
Raise my voice a little louder
It's time

I'm gonna be the change
I'm gonna start with my heart
I'm gonna be the light, be that light, my own light
That lights my way through the dark
I'm gonna see that day, changes gonna find me
But it's up to me, up to me, all on me
To make that change inside me
I'm gonna be the change (Change, ooh)

I can feel the firs starting, nothing gonna put it out
It's like the moments waiting for me
And it's right now

I'm gonna be the change
Gonna start with my heart
Gonna be the light, be that light, my own light
That lights my way through the dark
I'm gonna see that day, changes gonna find me
But it's up to me, up to me, all on me
To make that change inside me
I'm gonna be the change, change, change
I'm gonna be the change, change, change
I'm gonna be the change, change, change
Ooh

I'm gonna be the change, change, change
I'm gonna be the change, change, change
