

Think About You

Jojo

I push it down
I take a deep breathe
Try to think a little less

He lays me down
It's pretty good sex
Out of context
Yeah

I been trying to move on
And it's obvious that I can't
It was my fault we're broken
But I can't let go of hopin'
So I'll leave the door wide open

All my friends keep telling me I just need to fuck someone new
Whenever I, ever I do
I'm gonna, I'm gonna think of you
So if it seems like somebody took your spot well that's just not true
Whatever I, ever I do
I'm gonna, I'm gonna think of you
I'ma think about you
I'ma think about you
I'ma think about you

Hit me up
Ring me one time
If you wanna hit it one time
If you wanna fight, * me out of spite
If you need to hate me that's fine
If I gave all of my time
Could you get over your pride?
Hit me up
Ring me one time
If you need to hate me that's fine

I been trying to move on
And it's obvious that I can't
It was my fault we're broken
But I can't let go of hopin'
So I leave the door wide open

All my friends keep telling me I just need to fuck someone new
Whenever I, ever I do
I'm gonna, I'm gonna think of you
So if it seems like somebody took your spot well that's just not true
Whatever I, ever I do
I'm gonna, I'm gonna think of you
I'ma think about you
I'ma think about you
I'ma think about you
I'ma think about you
I'ma think about you
I'ma think about you
I'ma think about you

(Think about you)
(Think about you)

(When I'm with somebody new)
(Think about you)

Can't stop thinkin' 'bout you (Think about you)
(Think about you)
Love everything that you do (When I'm with somebody new)
(Think about you)

All my friends keep telling me I just need to fuck someone new
Whenever I, ever I do
I'm gonna, I'm gonna think of you
So if it seems like somebody took your spot well that's just not true
Whatever I, ever I do
I'm gonna, I'm gonna think of you
I'ma think about you (Think about you)
I'ma think about you (Think about you)
I'ma think about you (When I'm with somebody new)
(Think about you)

(Think about you)
(Think about you)
(When I'm with somebody new)
(Think about you)
