

Whenever You Call

Jolina Magdangal

Thinking of you here and now
Can't forget the love I found
Happy faces
Living pages
Almost anywhere

Don't know this love existed
They say it's magic
I can't tell
Bliss and gladness
Faith and whispers
Scattered everywhere

In your eyes I found my all
You were sent by the heavens above
I could never ask for more
There's a place and a home
And I see this when you call

Promise me that in your hands
Love will never come to end
And fill the spaces with embraces
Forever you'll be there

Cause in your eyes I fall
You were sent by the heavens above
I could never ask for more
There's a place and a home
And I see this when you call

Let me walk with you
You will see me through
Because this love's for me and you, ooh...

In your eyes I found my all
You were sent by the heavens above
By the heavens above
I could never ask for more
There's a place and a home
And I see this when you call...

I could never ask for more
There's a place and a home
And I see this when you call
There's a place and a home
And I see this when you call
