Ave Verum

Jon Anderson

See through this teaching life Shines around my being Out in the mists of timelessness I see your face Hold me closer now Each and every feeling now is come At last this majesty is God Hear me through your love See me in the light you are Hold me closer to the earth And all that gives (And all that is) Now I feel your true light Now I see your pure light Now I hold this love within my heart Is come God of love of light will shine Is come is come at last
