

Midnight Dancing

Jon Anderson

Riding in this car
Simply looking for a place to dance the night
She smiled at me and said: "Which way do you wanna go now?"
I said: "It could be this way... It could be that Come in to my room
You can dance with my tune
You can dance with my body
You can dance with my love
You can dance in these arms
You can dance with my life
You can dance with each rhythm above you"

She said...
"Sólo quiero tu amor
Sólo amantes saben como vivi
Completamente libre
Bailando entre sueños enamorados
Pensando en ese amor se puede soñar
Revivir, revivir
Ven conmigo esta noche
A bailar, a bailar, a bailar
Ven a bailar..."

"Come dance with me" she said...

So we went into the rhythm of piano conversation
And in the corner was this man singing to his friends
She took me by the hand
Said: "This is the way... this is the way to paradise!
Just dance with me... I'll bring you higher... higher...
To be true, to be right...
This is the play... the place you love...
This is the drama within you... they call it midnight dancing"
