Forever taken to the place of understanding
In reaching forward standing higher than the stars
Within without the framework of that simple meeting

To watch in wonderment, the meeting of all life...

Remember first to know you're spoken forever
As wisdom shines within your heart within your soul
Attracting everything around each for a reason

Forever taken to the place of understanding...

Sun is calling, sun it sings you
Sun is calling, sun it shines forever ever, ever, to be with you
Sun is calling, sun it sings you
Sun it shines, forever to be singing as it echoes you

Sound is the sound of the sky ever opening first to remember this
Dancing in the light forever firmament of realizing everything
Talk talk forever to chase all forgiving to open releasing
Echo in the rhythm of the circle of the sign of how you're standing here

Searching forever the sky in your eyes
Love stay open closer now
To be standing forever to see the truth

Seeking outward opening
To be offering all that you are, you are, you are, you are

Please to remember new words offer peace and light
Be the caretakers and guardians of mother earth
Faster true companion, faster than the eagle light

Please to remember that first and important song
Deep in your love of forever forgiven sing
Words are for forever
Opening my very soul

Reach fast tall song
Talking out clear sound
Deeper for a reason seeking asking, listening for the stories
Reaching for the first song ever to be sung

Reach fast tall song
(Over the stories of time)
Talking out clear sound
Clearer for a reason seeking
(Over the stories of time)
Asking, listening for the stories, (reaching for light) reaching for the first song (Listening for) destiny calling.

Music is freedom forever receiving it all that you are
Dancing in the light forever firmament of realizing everything
Sing to the sign of the earth sing to glory of life sing to sound of all time

Chasing the story to open the way
Sound out reason singing true
It will offer you all you are, you are
Sound out reason singing true
It will offer you all you are, you are

The seasons forever caressing
The seasons forever cascading

Make me to make me to know to remember that hope is for all, that hope is for r truth
Here in this world in this lifetime forever is Open doors will open hearts
Open hearts will always open doors
Given this gift for the given for living
The life that you love, you'll love the life you live
Here in this place to remember forever
There is light
There is light

(Open doors)
Open doors will always open hearts
(Open doors)
Open hearts will always open doors
(Open doors)
Open hearts will open doors
Who better than who better than

Who better than love
Open hearts will always open doors
Who better than love
Who better than love
Who better than love

Forever taken to the place of understanding
In reaching forward standing higher than the stars
Within without the framework of that simple meeting

We watch in wonderment the meeting of all life
Remember first to know you're spoken forever
As wisdom shines within your heart within your soul

Sun it shines forever to be singing as it echoes you, as it echoes you
Sun is calling, sun it sings you
Sun it shines forever to be singing as it echoes you

God given right to know
God given right to begin the chase forever found
This freedom hits your heart
This freedom to begin forever strong forever take you to eternity
Knowing is all is standing there
Brighter than the sky you are
Quick to receive, quick to receive
In the rhythm, in the rhythm of the given chase
In the rhythm of the given chase, light enough to see

Be the morning bright
Be the gift song

Be the everlasting song of life
In the presence of the presence of the given light
Take it out take it in

Be there the will to be so free
It is the only reason to live
It is the only reason for life
Shouting out this very reasoning
Sunlight evermore
(Dancing)
Dancing out all our lives to be clear
(Dancing)
Dancing out all our lives to be clear
(Dancing)
Better let your mind be ever sure
Better let your heart be ever sure
Be there the will to be so free

(Know that-know that-know that)
Knowing all is love
Knowing all is love
(Know that-know that-know that)
Knowing all is your true love
(Know that-know that-know that)
Knowing that in truth our freedom sings
Knowing that in truth our freedom really sings
This god given right to know our wisdom
This god given right to sing of freedom
God given right
To sing of freedom
God given right
To sing of freedom
Sing of freedom's light
Sing of freedom's light
To sing the presence of the light
Sun is calling
To sing the presence for forever
