

Chozen

Jon B.

Sexy, can we sit and talk our shit for a little bit? (A little bit)
You've been doing your thing, girl, don't think I didn't notice it, baby
You're amazing, we get better with time
Agin' like wine (agin' like wine)

Skin like cocoa, she know, I know just what to do with it (to do with it)
All your gnarly thoughts, girl, let's knock them off the checklist, baby
All this drip compliment your design (compliment your design) so fine (so good you're just so fine)

As soon as you walk through the room
Every eye in the place is on you
You didn't come here to choose
You're chosen, girl, your body's something special
Spend my money, girl, let me bless you

Caught in the vibes, luxury, lavish life and we're living it (we're living it, babe)
Wanna put my hands all over you
Passion, energy, caught in this energy, baby
Enough for days, purple haze, you're the truth, you're the truth

As soon as you walk through the room
Every eye in the place is on you
You didn't come here to choose
You're chosen, girl, your body's something special
Spend my money, girl, let me bless you (let me bless you)

I love your mind, but you know that, baby, oh
Walk the edge of the ocean
Dip your toes in, lady
Birthday suit under a bathrobe, baby, oh yeah
It might look dry outside, but you're keepin' it rainin', oh
Like a pure super-water from a frozen glacier, oh yeah
When we connect, we get like constellations, oh yeah
Floatin' amongst the stars on these special occasions
I feel good with you 'cause you're my chosen lady (chosen lady, chosen)

As soon as you walk through the room (chosen)
Every eye in the place is on you (every eye is looking at my babe)
You didn't come here to choose (you didn't come here to choose)
You're chosen, girl, your body's something special
Spend my money, girl, let me bless you

'Cause you deserve it, baby
And you're so worth it, baby
You're my chosen lady
No need to choose, baby
It's you, baby, oh (oh, baby)
Yeah, it's you, oh
Baby, it's you, you, you
It's you, yeah

You know who you are, my baby
Yeah, you're my chosen lady
Oh, love that you know it, baby, ooh
Just give me love (ooh, ooh)

You know who you are, my baby
Yeah, you're my chosen lady, yeah
Oh, love that you know it, baby, ooh
'Cause you're my chosen lady
