

Life Lesson

Jon Batiste

Never second guess yourself
'Cause we were falling darling from the start
Always listen to your heart
'Cause we were falling from the start

You're happy until you're not
You're icy until you're hot
I read an article about a star who said standing
In the shadow of her husband felt so dark

Reminded me of you and I because That's very much the way our story was Because my biggest blessing my biggest blessing
He got so mad that in a flash in just one second
I became his life lesson, I'm his life lesson now

Going through the world alone
Here 'til I right my wrongs
Shadow until the light
From the start it was all and all

Fears of a place and time
And the space was made
And stakes were laid
Say it again, I pray

"What's your name?" I said as she came down
With auburn hair her dress was long
She's not your type. It made me smile
She's as sunny as the dawn

Get gone
Get gone
Get gone
Get gone

She rocks a little red car like me man she belongs
She wears her hair like mine with a part in the middle
And I think it's cute
But she could be the one to take my place

She was my biggest blessing
She was my biggest blessing

I hope it's cold where you reside
You wake up late at night
And I would reckon
What you'd been guessing
Uh huh
I'm your life lesson

Ooh ooh ooh oh
Whoa oh ooh oh
Ooh ooh oh oh
Oh

You were my biggest blessing

You were my biggest blessing

It's like a dream you know what I mean
Things were peachy keen
This very second
And I would reckon
Now you know
Amen
