

Run

Jon Bellion

We live in a ghost town
There's nothin' left for us to prove
I'm ready to go now
But I can't leave here without you, you, you
Singin' lie, l-lie, l-lie, lie, lie
Scared of the unknown
Our timid thoughts are wastin' time
And you'll always be home
If your hands are holding mine, mine, mine
Singin' lie, l-lie, l-lie, lie, lie

Blue jeans, runaway dreams
Pack it all up and leave
Where ya wanna run tonight?
Baby, we can run tonight
Wild eyes, hit the headlights
Get into the car and drive
Where ya wanna run?
Baby, we can run
Baby, we can run tonight
Baby, we can run tonight

Feel the emotion
It comes in waves and crashes through
And you are the ocean
You know your eyes are just as blue, blue, blue
Singin' lie, l-lie, l-lie, lie, lie
Tell me you want this
There's no time to second guess
Drive into the sunset
'Til we find out where it ends, ends, ends
Singin' lie, l-lie, l-lie, lie, lie

Blue jeans, runaway dreams
Pack it all up and leave
Where ya wanna run tonight?
Baby, we can run tonight
Wild eyes, hit the headlights
Get into the car and drive
Where ya wanna run?
Baby, we can run
Baby, we can run tonight
Baby, we can run tonight

Rules were meant to break and I ain't wastin' one more night
One more night, whoa
Good things come to those who wait, but I ain't got the time
Singin' lie, l-lie, l-lie, lie, lie

Blue jeans, runaway dreams
Pack it all up and leave
Where ya wanna run tonight?
Wild eyes, hit the headlights
Get into the car and drive
Where ya wanna run?
Baby, we can run
Where ya wanna run?

Where ya wanna run?
Yeah

Blue jeans, runaway dreams
Pack it all up and leave
Where ya wanna run tonight?
Baby, we can run tonight
Wild eyes, hit the headlights
Get into the car and drive
Where ya wanna run?
Baby, we can run

Blue jeans, runaway dreams
Pack it all up and leave
Where ya wanna run tonight?
Baby, we can run tonight
Wild eyes, hit the headlights
Get into the car and drive
Where ya wanna run?
Baby, we can run
