

Something2Relax2

Jon Bellion

Everybody's mad, extra, all the time
I think we need more tracks like this
This is "Something to Relax to."

Something to relax to Something, something to relax to-oo
Something to relax to Something, something to, (relax, relax)

Indian style on top of a waterfall flow
Had my whole life in front of me, watched it all go
Smoothly on top of the charts
Was me all up in my drop
But then my dream level popped
It seems life is always different when we open our eyes
This song goes out to anybody trying to get by
But it's constantly low, so you gotta stay high
If this could help you with your issues, then I need you to vib
e
I don't really care for the tough guy image
I'm pretty sure a mother, who is spent but has given
Everything to her children, three jobs just for living
Doesn't really give a - if I get mad women
Skaters to the gangsters, punks to the preps
Everybody's got issues and for that I'll rep
Don't usually spit but this is something I'll rap to Ego at the door and this is something to relax to

Whoa-oo-oh, oh-oo-oh

Whoa, oh, oh
Whoa, oh-oo-oh [x4]
