

Don't Cover Up

Jon Bryant

My body's shaking
I know I'm not deserving
But this is how we're turning out
Entertaining
Every little excuse
I'm making up to keep you close

Baby, take it all off
You could put it all on me
We could take it real slow
We could live a fantasy
And if we bond through desire
Like we ain't on a fiery streak
Just know that I'll find you, so

Don't cover up my love
Don't cover up my love
Don't cover up my love
I'm always beside you
Don't cover up my love

I watch your heart sink
I wanna make it alright
Like cigarettes at midnight
Let me stay here
Underneath your eyelids
'Cause you were cut from my ribs

Baby, take it all off
You could put it all on me
We could take it real slow
We could live a fantasy
And if we lose all desire
Whenever you tired of me
Just know that I'll find you, so

Don't cover up my love
Don't cover up my love
Don't cover up my love (No, the darkness won't hide you)
Don't cover up my love (If you lose me, I'll find you)
Don't cover up my love (Yeah, I'm always beside you)
Don't cover up my love (If you lose me, I'll find you)
Don't cover up my love (No, the darkness won't hide you)
Don't cover up my love
Don't cover up my love
