

Familiar Sound

Jon Bryant

Keeping my chin up high
Keeping my trouble out tonight
She leads me til the water runs dry

Sorrow came into sight
Sorry, I couldn't change your mind
She use me till the loving runs dry

Set me up
Break me down
Familiar sound
So take me out
Another round
Down wanna drag down
I say no...
Say no...

Hanging on every word
Taking on faith when lines get blurred
She bleeds me til my money run dry

I'm alone
But I feel like I'm still keeping score tonight
Love has lost its shine now

Set me up
And break me down
Familiar sound
So take me out
Another round
Down wanna drag down
I say no...
Say no...

No, I don't wanna know how you feel about that, feel bout that
No, you don't wanna know if I feel that bad, feel that bad

I was wrong to remind you of what we said
I know that you've hurt before
But love has lost its shine now

Set me up
Break me down
Familiar sound
So take me out
Another round
Down wanna drag down
I say no...
Say no...
Say no...
Say no...
