Make It Or Break It

Jon Bryant

I save, every sigh
To build up my walls, oh, so high
You crash and burn
I'll wait and forget all the lessons I've learned

When the lights go out
If there's no one else

And I know
We'll make it or break it
Oh yeah, we all want someone to hold
We'll make it or break it
I'm not gonna face this alone

I saw what you wrote
Said all these songs have your soul
Replaced every verse
I thought to myself "Could love get much worse?"

If the light goes out
If there's no one else
Will I lose myself?
No, I'll always be there 'til the end

And I know
We'll make it or break it
Oh yeah, we all want someone to hold
We'll make it or break it
I'm not gonna face this alone

If the light goes out
We'll make it or break it
If there's no one else
Yeah, we all want someone
Yeah, we all want someone

If the light goes out
We'll make it or break it
If there's no one else
Yeah, we all want someone
Will I lose mysel?
We'll make it or break it
I'm not gonna face this alone
