

Skinny Dip

Jon Bryant

We threw our Levis on the sand
These selfish tides, don't give a damn
We stood on the dock
A cannonball into the sea
We made the most of gravity
And I fell like a rock

So leave your worries lose the fear
There's only so much time, my dear

So let's make it count
And go skinny dip
In our birthday suits doin' hippie flips
Well, it's alright
To feel a little shy
Cuz you look so damn beautiful
Like always and I know
I'm such a lucky guy

It was the peak of '22
A naked truth I always knew
Reflecting back at me
Oh, and I
I felt a choke inside my chest
Don't want the night to be over yet
There's no where else to be

So leave your worries lose the fear
There's only so much time, my dear

So let's make it count
And go skinny dip
In our birthday suits doin' hippie flips
Well, it's alright
To feel a little shy
But you look so damn perfect when the moonlight hits your eyes

Over and over and over again
We climb up and we jump in
Over and over and over again
While the waters warm and days are thin

We found our Levis on the shore
You took my hand and said "one more"

So let's make it count
Let's skinny dip
In our birthday suits doin' hippie flips
Well, it's alright
To feel a little shy
But you look so damn beautiful like always and I know
I'm such a lucky guy
