

Texas Tea

Jon Bryant

Given what I know about the girls back home
You be the first know I've got you and I on hold
Give me what you've got, every dot to dot
'Cause you're the first to know I've got you and I on hold

Leave it for the setting sun
Loving you is on the run

I've gotta chase you down like texas tea
Like whiskey shots and nicotine, like birds after bees
You're the shooting start in my night sky
You're the drug of choice, my full supply
And viens to please

Babe, I want the real from the parts that feel
'Cause you've burned in deep to the parts that make me weak
Let your yes be yes and let your no be no
There will be no shame when you leave just as you came

Leave it for the setting sun
'Cause loving you is on the run

I've gotta chase you down like texas tea
Like whiskey shots and nicotine, like birds after bees
'Cause you're the shooting start in my night sky
You're the drug of choice, my full supply
And viens to please

I've gotta chase you down like texas tea
Like whiskey shots and nicotine, like birds after bees
'Cause you're the shooting start in my night sky
You're the drug of choice, my full supply
And viens to please

You're the shooting start in my night sky, yeah
You're the drug of choice, my full supply
And viens to please
And veins to please
Veins to please
And veins to please
