

Tied Up

Jon Bryant

Breathe in
Breathe out
We'll make it
No sleep, no doubt
The walls have started breathing

What have I become?
Did I take too much, oh?

I gotta go
Cuz you're keepin' my hands tied up
Always pulls my world apart
I gotta know
What's keepin' my heart riled up
Can we take it back to the start?

I just need your love to get me high, high
I just need your love to get me right back in time
Roll me out another pill, another thrill, take me over
Cuz I just need your love to keep me high
I'm walking a wire

I'm down
Strung out, in exile
What have I become?

They're throwing stones
The crack in my window grows
I wanna feel the heat tonight
We're going home
So what's keeping my heart riled up?
Can we take it back to the start?

I just need your love to get me high, high
I just need your love to get me right back in time
So roll me out another pill, another thrill, take me over
Cuz I just need your love to keep me high
I'm walking a wire

Some days your gone and I feel low
Some days are long and I withdrawl
Like a needle in the hay
But I'm making my way to you
I feel light
I could die now

I just need your love to get me high, high
I just need your love to get me right back in time
So roll me out another pill, another thrill, take me over
Cuz I just need your love to keep me high
I've burned out tonight
I've burned out tonight
