

Education

Jon Foreman

Here's an education that you can't pay for
How to get up again and try
Here's an education that you can't pay for
How to look me in the eye
Here's an education that you can't pay for
How to get back in the fight
Here's an education that you can't pay for
How to say goodbye

If you haven't figured out by now
I guess the pain is gonna show you how
It goes on and on and on and on and on and on and on

You lose yourself when you love someone
You lose yourself when you love someone
You lose yourself and you come undone
When you love someone
And you love someone

Most things worth doing in this life
Are gonna kill you in the end
Most things worth doing in this life
Are gonna kill you in the end
And the things worth fighting for
Are the things that you can't defend
Most things worth doing in this life
Are gonna kill me in the end

If you haven't learned that lesson yet
The scars are teachers that you're never gonna forget
It goes on and on and on and on and on and on and on

You lose yourself when you love someone
You lose yourself when you love someone
You lose yourself and you come undone
When you love someone and you love someone
When you love someone and you love someone
When you love someone
When you love someone
Alright

Every breath is a contradiction
Breathe it in
Breathe it in
Oxygen, the tide of life and breath and death
You breathe it in
You breathe it in
You breathe it in
You breathe it in
You breathe it in
You breathe it in
You breathe it in
You breathe it in
You breathe it in
You breathe it in

You lose yourself when you love someone

You lose yourself when you love someone
You lose yourself and you come undone
When you love someone
Don't you love someone?

You lose yourself when you love someone
You lose yourself when you love someone
You lose yourself, ego starts to run
When you love someone
When you love someone
And I love you someone (And you love someone)
Yeah, I love someone
