

Where The Sidewalk Ends

Jon Foreman

Where did all the butterflies go
Maybe this what it feels like to let go
There's a hole where you are not
But then you don't know what you got until it goes

We made a life together with a sound
Thought that nothing in this world could bring it down
But now the distance in between us leaves me wondering
How could silence be this loud

We've lived our whole life
Leading up to this moment
Ain't no maps where we're going
We only know where we've been
Cause life gives nothing
Guaranteed but you're always
A part of me
Even out there where the unknown begins
Where the sidewalk ends
Where the sidewalk ends

So I close my eyes and wish I had the words
Some transcendent truth for a second verse
But we get our rhymes reversed
And our song ain't what I thought it was

So I start to look around to find healing
Or somewhere I can stuff these feelings
But the memories come to me in waves
They leave my head in outer space and reeling

We've lived our whole life
Leading up to this moment
Ain't no maps where we're going
We only know where we've been
My love is always
Even if we part ways
Even in that haze where the unknown begins
Where the sidewalk ends
Where the sidewalk ends

Where the sidewalk ends

We're standing at the crossroads
Just you and me my friend
I can't tell you tomorrow
And I don't know how this ends
The past is where we come from
But we can't go back again
And this is where sidewalk ends
Where the sidewalk ends

I'll meet you where the sidewalk ends
Out there where the sidewalk ends
Gonna meet you where the sidewalk ends
Yeah where the side-
Where the sidewalk ends
