

Beautiful Lies

Jon McLaughlin

If you give and not give up
We could lie on our backs underneath the white flags
There emotions at rise up
They're into us for no one in particular (Not the game we) It's not a game if we both play (we play with)
It's not a lie if we both... just say it

Come sit a little closer
Put my arm around your shoulder
I don't want to be alone anymore
Isn't breaking what a heart's for
We can close our eyes
Forget about the wrong and the right
You and I won't be alone anymore
Isn't breaking what a heart's for

Inside there's a burning
Making the words that we use temporarily true
We could twist and then turn'em
Into beautiful lies underneath the moonlight
It's not a chance if we both miss it
It's not enough if we both... twist it

Come sit a little closer
Put my arm around your shoulder
I don't want to be alone anymore
Isn't breaking what a heart's for
We can close our eyes
Forget about the wrong and the right
You and I won't be alone anymore
Isn't breaking what a heart's for

I planned out I would save us from our loneliness
We can't buy what we're craving
So we're holding to this
Let time overtake us
As we're faking true love's kiss
Just buy this

Come sit a little closer
Put your arm around my shoulder
I don't want to be alone anymore
Isn't breaking what a heart's for
We can close our eyes
Forget about the wrong and the right
You and I won't be alone anymore
Isn't breaking what a heart's for

(We won't be alone)...
Isn't breaking what a heart's...
