

Christmas Time Is Here (But You're Not)

Jon McLaughlin

Lights in the window
Snow on the ground
People getting together, fighting the weather
All over town
Now everyone's saying
Happy holidays
And the kids are all waiting, anticipating
Wish I felt the same

Well Christmas time is here
But you are not
The memories of you
Are all I got
I hung the tree in red and green
And the fire's still hot, oh
Christmas time is here
But you're not

Now it feels like December
Was made for us
From the walks in the snow, to the mistletoe
To falling in love
But now Christmas ain't merry
No, it's only blue
And every song no matter which one
Just reminds me of you
Just reminds me of, yeah

Christmas time is here
But you are not
The memories of you
Are all I got
I hung the tree in red and green
And the fire's still hot, oh
Christmas time is here
But you're not, oh-whoa

(Ooh) So let the choir sing
And let the church bells ring
I'll be thinking 'bout you
Let the snowflakes fall
And when the season's gone
I'll be thinking 'bout you

Christmas time is here
You're not
Oh, Christmas time is here
But you are not
No, no, you're not

Christmas time is here
But you are not, oh
And memories of you
Are all I got, all I got
And the fire's still hot

Christmas time is here
