

More Than Me

Jon McLaughlin

I hope you know what we both know you're doing
Abusing and tearing apart
Unaware or carelessly you leaving you weaving lines of broken hearts

Unfortunately
Nobody's gonna spend the night beside the phone and wait for you to call
Nobody's gonna throw their back out catching you when you start to fall
Nobody's gonna hang on every word you say or miss you when you leave
Anymore
More than me

I close my eyes and I try not to see you
I need to get you off my mind
Many men have given in and fallen
I'm crawling right behind

Cause unfortunately

Nobody's gonna spend the night beside the phone and wait for you to call
Nobody's gonna throw their back out catching you when you start to fall
Nobody's gonna hang on every word you say
or miss you when you leave
Anymore
More than me

What?

Nobody's gonna spend the night beside the phone and wait for you to call
Nobody's gonna throw their back out catching you when you start to fall
And nobody's gonna hang on every word you say
or miss you when you leave
Anymore
More than me
