

Oh My Love

Jon McLaughlin

Tell me how does it feel,
Is your heartbeat racing?
Running as fast as you can
You're screamin' what you want to hear
While the bridge is blazing
And a pack of matches in your hand

Chains were never on your ankles
And locks were never on the door
So you're not breakin' free of anything
Just don't want it anymore

So when the high you're chasin'
And the lie you're craving
Are gone, and you're on your knees
When your heart is broken
Wide open
By the lie, that you once believed
Oh my love, turn and run
Back to me

There's a voice in your head
Ignore it, it's only gonna tell you lies
Oh how it breaks my heart
To see you listen
Thinkin' that that voice is mine

Your heart can be a cruel deceiver
Time can rack up like a debt
But I've got my eyes set on the horizon
Lookin' for your silhouette

So when the high you're chasin'
And the lie you're craving
Are gone, and you're on your knees
When your heart is broken
Wide open
By the lie, that you once believed

Oh, when it all comes down crashin'
In the middle of the action
And you feel something's missin'
Oh my love, turn and run
Back to me

Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh
You can't run
Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh
You can't run

So when the high you're chasin'
And the lie you're craving
Are gone, and you're on your knees
When your heart is broken
Wide open
By the lie, that your love had been

Oh, when it all comes down crashin'
In the middle of the action
And you feel something's missin'
Oh my love, just turn and run
Back to me
