Too Cool For Christmas

Jon McLaughlin

I see you standing there
In the back of the room
Acting like you don't care
You used to sing so loud
And now you're just mouthing the words
Ain't even making a sound

But there was a time
In your life when you loved
All the lights and the candles
And then at some point
You got way too cool to handle

Merry, merry, merry, merry Christmas, yeah
Merry, merry, merry, merry Christmas
Oh, this one is for you
(Yeah)

I won't apologize
For this ugly sweater
I've been rocking all night
You should look around the room
And see everybody's wearing red
And everybody's wearing green
Is there some reason

That you're rolling your eyes
'Cause you don't realize
What the point is
Oh, you should turn that frown
Right upside down
And join us

Merry, merry, merry, merry Christmas (Christmas)
Merry, merry, merry, merry Christmas (Christmas)
Oh, this one is for you

Think it's gone but it's not
Somewhere deep down you haven't forgot

Yeah, merry, merry, merry, merry, merry Christmas
Singing merry, merry, merry, merry Christmas
Oh, merry, merry, merry, merry Christmas (Christmas)
Singing merry, merry, merry, merry Christmas (Christmas)
Oh, this one is for you
Oh, this one is for you

Merry, merry Christmas
Merry, merry Christmas
Merry, merry Christmas
Okay
