

Glory And Majesty

Jon Reddick

For every sickness, You're the healing hand
For every prisoner, You're deliverance, yeah
For every lost soul, You're the promised land
Our breakthrough, You're our breakthrough

Out of the ashes, You make beautiful
When there is no way, You're the miracle
And only You do the impossible
Our breakthrough, You're our breakthrough

'Cause, every mountain moves with a word from You
They surrender to Your glory and majesty
Wind and waves obey the power of Your name
Jesus, we proclaim Your glory and majesty
Yeah, yes, Your majesty

Out of the ashes, You make beautiful
When there is no way, You're the miracle, yeah
And only You do the impossible
Our breakthrough, You're our breakthrough

'Cause, every mountain moves with a word from You
They surrender to Your glory and majesty
Wind and waves obey the power of Your name, yeah
Jesus, we proclaim Your glory and majesty
Yeah, yes, your majesty

We will not forget to remember Your goodness
We will not forget to remember Your faithfulness
We will not forget to remember Your goodness, oh
We will not forget, no, 'cause every mountain moves

'Cause, every mountain moves with a word from You
They surrender to Your glory and majesty
Wind and waves obey the power of Your name
Jesus, we proclaim Your glory and majesty

'Cause, every mountain moves with a word from You, yeah
And they surrender to Your glory and majesty
Wind and waves obey the power of Your name, oh
Jesus, we proclaim Your glory and majesty, yes

Your majesty, yeah
Your majesty
