

Start Over Somewhere

Jon Wolfe

Woke up this mornin'
And I put on a brand new shirt
Threw my suitcase in the backseat
And drove past work
I didn't know where I was going
And I didn't care

Cause there's too much of you
Still hangin' 'round this heartbreak town
On every corner there's a memory
That I can't turn down
So I put it in my rearview
And watched it disappear
Cause you gotta start over somewhere

Maybe on a farm in somewhere Oklahoma
Or I could drive on to the coast of California
Waiting tables in LA Or cuttin' Oklahoma Hay
Who cares?
Its all the same to me

Cause anywhere I look
All I see is lonesome
Gonna take all of the strength I've got
And then some
The only thing that keeps me going
Is knowing that we ain't got a prayer
So you gotta start over somewhere

Thought I heard you whisperin' my name
But that was just the wind
Sayin' come on home to me, boy
And be my fool again
So I turned on the radio
And let the music blare
Cause you gotta start over somewhere

Maybe down there on a boat off Louisiana
Or might be up there in a high-rise in Atlanta
Stuck in traffic, driving home
Or on the gulf of Mexico
Who cares?
It's all the same to me

Cause anywhere I look
All I see is lonesome
Gonna take all of the strength I've got
And then some
The only thing that keeps me going
Is knowing that we ain't got a prayer
So you gotta start over somewhere

Woke up this mornin'
And I put on a brand new shirt
