

The Only Time You Call

Jon Wolfe

Baby, I guess you've been out again
Cause you're the only one who calls at 3 a.m
You know I'm at home and you know I'm alone
And you know I wanna pick up the phone

You'll say you miss me and you love me
You'll swear I'm the only man you want
You'll say you need me and you wanna see me
Believe me girl I've heard it all
And like a fool I'll believe you
Then I'll wake up and find you gone
Oh, the whiskey must make you miss me
Cause it's the only time you call

Baby why don't you just let me go
Why hurt me, you know I just can't tell you no
Girl what do you think it does to me
Every time that telephone rings

And you'll say you miss me and you love me
You'll swear I'm the only man you want
You'll say you need me and you wanna see me
Believe me girl I've heard it all
And like a fool I'll believe you
Then I'll wake up and find you gone
Oh, the whiskey must make you miss me
Cause it's the only time you call

And like a fool I'll believe you
Then I'll wake up and find you gone
Oh the whiskey must make you miss me
Cause it's the only time you call
The only time you call
The only time you call
